

Cobham Manor
equestrian centre

Skills for Working Life (Land-based - animals)

Providing a unique learning environment

- * City & Guilds training centre
- * Transferable credits
- * Tier achievement levels
- * Wide range of expertise
- * Varied Equine disciplines
- * Motivated team regularly competing at British Dressage
- * Established business
- * Working to give a positive input to the local community
- * Supervised small group training

Course Length : 10 days over 10 weeks

*Cost: £1000
Introductory offer £700*

CMEC
Water Lane
Thurnham
Kent . ME14 3LU

Phone: 01622 738497

Mobile 07843 603112

E-mail:

info@cobham-manor.co.uk

Target

14 to 19 year olds and adults wishing to increase their levels of independence.

Course

NPTC Entry level 2 & 3 Award, Certificate & Diploma. Giving candidates the opportunity to learn the basic requirements in working life with animals. While developing work based personal development skills.

Aims

Opportunity to gain knowledge in rural working life. To develop confidence & understanding of basic needs in horse & animal care. Build work based communication skills with the ability to work in a team and individually. Take on responsibility for themselves and others. Improve relationship skills, social understanding

Content

Preparing for work - Health & Safety at work.
Personal & social development - Working towards goals, as part of a team, problem solving & self development in daily life.
Vocational - Recognize Horse types and equipment, Horse & animal health care, Horse and small animal handling, daily stable duties.

Outcome

Provide a basic working confidence. Giving the opportunity to progress to the equine industry or further education & training . Be an effective team member with improved communication skills. Building a credit portfolio and recognized qualification